

Introductory Statement from David White:

Dear fellow residents

For those of you who do not know me, my full name is Michael David White but I have always been known as David.

I am a Chartered Accountant and a Licensed Insolvency Practitioner and I will be retiring from my present role as the Training Director of the Association of Business Recovery Professionals at the end of September. I have not stood for election before because I did not feel I would have the time available to ensure I could fulfil my duties as a Trustee properly.

I have lived on the Suburb since 1960 when my parents, Sue & Douglas White, bought 2 Meadway from the author, Norman Collins. 2 Meadway used to be known as the Christmas Tree House as we were responsible for putting a large tree in the hall window every year from around 1962 onwards.

I am married to Niamh O'Donnell-Keenan and we live in Hampstead Way.

I am a member of the Horticultural Society as I am a keen gardener with both a garden and an allotment to maintain.

My principal role within the Suburb prior to taking on this role is that of Church Warden for the Parish of St Jude-on-the-Hill.

I am firmly committed to the ethos and principles that the Suburb embodies and I strongly believe that it is important to maintain and preserve the character and amenities of the Suburb. .

I hope that I will not let you or the Suburb down.

Best wishes

David
